	Modern Slavery & Human Trafficking Policy

ACS Construction Group Ltd is committed to driving out acts of modern day slavery and human trafficking within its business and that from within its supply chains, including subcontractors, and partners.

The Company acknowledges responsibility to the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and will ensure transparency within the organisation and with suppliers of goods and services to the organisation. These as well as the suppliers of services make up the supply chain within ACS Construction Group Ltd.

As part of the companies due diligence, the Company will not knowingly support or deal with any business involved in slavery or human trafficking. The Company works within a strict supplier chain register.

The company Directors and senior management shall take responsibility for implementing this policy statement and its objectives and shall provide adequate resources (training, etc) and investment to ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place within the organisation and within its supply chains.

A full copy of this policy and a copy of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 will be accessible to all employees electronically and can be obtained from Workspace upon request.

This policy statement will be reviewed annually and published.

This Policy takes into account, and supports, the policies, procedures and requirements documented in our Integrated Management System, compliant with the requirements of ISO 9001:2008, ISO 14001:2004 and OHSAS 18001:2007. The implementation and operation of this management system underlines our commitment to this policy.
